

Chan among 100 most influential global HR professionals

KUCHING: Head of Naim Group's Human Resource, Andrew Chan has been conferred the '100 Most Influential Global HR Professionals Award' in the Global HR Excellence Award category at the World HRD Congress held in Mumbai, India recently.

Naim in a statement yesterday said the main aim of the congress, now celebrating its silver jubilee, was to create a global platform that help human resource professionals and practitioners across the world to share and exchange thoughts and experiences with the best leaders in the field.

"The Global HR Excellence Award is to recognise individuals and acknowledge organisations striving for excellence in human resource professional cause and practices," it said.

During the congress, Chan was invited to speak on Strategic HR Management.

Chan with his '100 Most Influential Global HR Professionals Award'.